

SAFER COMMUNITIES PARTNERSHIP ACTION PLAN

CLASS A DRUGS AND COUNTY LINES
ACTION	MILESTONES	BY WHOM	BY WHEN
Support local delivery of objectives and actions included in the Force Partnership SOC plan (currently being developed)		CI Jolene Mann/Gwyneth Ayers
Raise awareness among front-line staff from partner agencies on County Lines to include reporting procedures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Multi-agency briefing events for staff on County Lines (and Counter-Terrorism Prevent) – 6th and 7th March 2019 Attended by 206 staff from partners, evaluation being undertaken, additional sessions being considered. - Identify schedule of existing team meetings and other opportunities to ensure further dissemination of awareness raising - Wide publicity to increase awareness and of reporting procedures 	Gwyneth Ayers/CI Jolene Mann/Insp Chris Reynolds
Raise awareness among young people using range of mechanisms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Liaison with Carmarthenshire Youth Council and the Police’s newly-established youth engagement forum network - Presentations to primary and secondary Head Teacher Forums - Training for primary and secondary school staff to be delivered by School Community Police Officers - New All Wales Schools Programme module on ‘Exploitation’ to be launched in September 2019 and rolled out locally. 	CI Jolene Mann / Gill Adams, Youth Support Service Manager, CCC CI Jolene Mann	March 2019 April 2019 March 2020

Promote links to SOC related information and contact details for referrals on websites		All partner
Develop Information Sharing Protocol (Force wide ISP planned for SOC) & Partnership communications plan		CI Jolene Mann/Kate Harrop
Work with local community in Tyisha in Llanelli to develop and implement elements in regeneration masterplan relating to concerns over drugs, following engagement and consultation undertaken in 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop actions in response to drugs issues for inclusion in masterplan - Local services and community to work together to implement actions 	Gwyneth Ayres
Attend Private Landlord Forum meetings in Llanelli and Carmarthen to raise awareness of vulnerability of tenants in relation to cuckooing and County Lines		CI Jolene Mann / Ella Rabaiotti, Crimestoppers / Gareth Williams, Homes and Safer Communities, CCC	May 2019
Consider drug testing in licensed premises		CI Jolene Mann
VIOLENT CRIME INCLUDING VAWDASV
ACTION	MILESTONES	BY WHOM	BY WHEN
Support local delivery of objectives and actions included in the Force SOC plan		CI Jolene Mann / Kate Harrop
Link to VAWDASV Regional Board and support delivery of objectives locally		Avril Bracey / Kate Harrop
Complete Annual report White Ribbon Accreditation – Police, Fire and Council for submission to White Ribbon Campaign	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gather updates in relation to actions, including reference to joint celebration event and work undertaken together - Identify further areas for development including focus on partnership working between the three organisations - Draft individual action plan for approval by each organisation 	Kate Harrop/ DS Jamie Stephens/Diana Harris	August 2019

Continue to co-ordinate partnership approach to White Ribbon Campaign	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Evaluate 2018 campaign - Identify additional partners and activities for inclusion - Work in partnership to develop enhanced campaign for White Ribbon Day and 16 Days of Action 	Kate Harrop and White Ribbon Steering Group	November 2019
Continue to support local women survivors of domestic abuse group (WSSP) and improve links with local police officers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Local police officer to contact the group and attend meeting 	Kate Harrop
Consider how to develop further the Paul's Pledge campaign	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Review activities including additional areas such as attendance at Behave or Banned meetings with licensees to raise awareness 	Kate Harrop / Insp Richard Janas
Evaluate vulnerable victims of crime kits and promote scheme	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify usage of the kits - Check current stock 	Insp Richard Janas
Support the engagement of the new 'Fearless' worker for Dyfed Powys into schools, youth service and other agencies who work with young people. This worker will be delivering sessions for young people and professionals around the serious violence agenda.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recruit 'Fearless' worker - Develop interactive educational resource - Roll out to young people and professionals 	Ella Rabaiotti, Crimestoppers
Consider engagement opportunities between partners and new Serious Violence and Prevention Youth Co-ordinator post		CI Jolene Mann
COUNTER-TERRORISM
ACTION	MILESTONES	BY WHOM	BY WHEN
Support local delivery of objectives and actions included in the Regional CONTEST action plan		CI Jolene Mann / Gwyneth Ayres
Arrange dissemination of WRAP training to public service staff		All partners

CYBER CRIME
ACTION	MILESTONES	BY WHOM	BY WHEN
Roll out training to all staff and consider future briefing sessions		All partners
Raise awareness among targeted groups using range of mechanisms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Liaison with Carmarthenshire Youth Council and the Police's newly-established youth engagement forum network - Presentations to schools and colleges using staff including Schools Community Police Officers - Provide information to older people, for example using 50+ Forum and Age Concern Cymru 	CI Jolene Mann / Kate Harrop
Develop local SOC profile to include partner data to inform joint activity aimed at reducing threat of cyber crime		CI Jolene Mann / Kate Harrop
Encourage businesses to comply with 'Cyber Essentials' and raise awareness among businesses		Kate Harrop / Police Digital Communications and Cyber Crime Unit
Host the Cyber Bus in March in Carmarthen Town Centre – part of the Cyber Resilience promotional tour throughout Wales – to raise awareness of the public's vulnerability to cybercrime and promote how to reduce the risk of becoming a victim	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Liaison with the Regional Organised Crime Unit (ROCU) to arrange the day - Arrange publicity, linking in with ROCU 	IT department, CCC	19 th March 2019
Hold Cyber Awareness week of action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify partners including Trading Standards, Age Concern, schools, Llanelli Business Improvement District - Develop communications plan identifying publicity opportunities including press, newsletters, social media, cinemas, community engagement events, use of screens in public places 	Kate Harrop / Police Digital Communications and Cyber Crime Unit

Hold campaign to engage local communities at key locations and events to raise awareness of password security		Kate Harrop/Police Digital Communications and Cyber Crime Unit
Hold workshop to assist partners to help children and young people to use digital and online technologies safely, mindfully, creatively and positively in ways that promote their well-being and resilience. (Need to identify costs)	- Develop digital Crimestoppers campaign	Kate Harrop / Ella Rabaiotti, Crimestoppers
Develop animation DVD for use on screens in public places (additional ones could then feature different priorities in future)		Kate Harrop / Police Digital Communications and Cyber Crime Unit
Expand pilot PSB project 'Making Every Contact Count' training front-line staff to speak to local residents they come into contact with about key messages from partners, which include cyber crime	- Agree new cohort to be trained - Review key messages - Roll out training	Kate Harrop / MECC Steering Group
Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)
ACTION	MILESTONES	BY WHOM	BY WHEN
Raise public awareness including in schools and colleges		CI Jolene Mann/Kate Harrop
Arrange training event for professionals to ensure clear understanding and reporting procedures		CI Jolene Mann
Arrange conference and campaign with Crimestoppers for partners	- Develop digital Crimestoppers campaign	Kate Harrop/CI Jolene Mann/Ella Rabaiotti, Crimestoppers

CROSS CUTTING ACTIONS
Introduce Safeguarding awareness training sessions for licensed premises and door staff – to include CSE, County Lines and White Ribbon Campaign	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pilot session run in February to test the presentations which will include the White Ribbon Campaign and circulation of campaign beer mats - Roll out sessions across the County 	Emyr Jones, local authority licensing and Linda Elias, Police	December 2019
Partnership working initiative between Neighbourhood Policing Teams and Fire and Rescue Service community safety officers working in local areas. Aim to encourage the sharing of information and ease of contact between teams to enable working in partnership to provide support to the most vulnerable within our communities. Officers would be able to use some of the items and home safety and crime prevention products that the partners have and to pass on themed messages as part of any public facing events and awareness campaigns such as Hate Crime awareness, White Ribbon, CSE and Cyber Crime.		Inspector Richard Janas / Will Bowen, Mid and West Wales Fire and Rescue Service
Hold drama workshops with primary school children about speaking up about crime – to cover priorities such as cyber-crime, CSE and domestic abuse – which ends with a show to which parents are also invited. Costs to be identified	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Consider pilot in Tyisha - Evaluate difference in attitudes and awareness of Crimestoppers 	Kate Harrop	